BAYOLINE'S QUININE HAIR TONIC.
Something which has long been needed.
Every day we hear of some case of paralysis, softening of the brain or some nervous disorder of the head resulting from the use of hair preparations containing lead, sulphur, bismuth, or other mineral substance equally poisonous. That the use of these preparations is always attended with danger is an undisputed fact. They are dyes, and should not be used for dressing the hair. What has long been needed, is a preparation like Bayoline, which is not a restorer, or dye, contains neither lead, sulphur, bismuth, or any mineral substance whatever. It is a pure and harmless hair dressing, keeps the hair from falling out, promotes its growth, eradicates dandruff, cleanses the scalp, is not greasy or sticky, does not soil and always leaves a sense of cleanliness and comfort attained by no other preparation for its intended purpose. It has never been equalled [illegible]

Decisions at Law.

AROOSTOOK COUNTY.

John B. Fournier vs Solomon Cyr. Ap'lt. On plaintiff's exceptions, "Exceptions overruled."
Trafton, L. Madigan, Hersin. Keegan.

WASHINGTON COUNTY.

Thos. Johnson vs. Frontier Steamboat Co. On defendant's motion for new trial. "Motion sustained, new trial granted."
Grangers, Pike. McNichol.

Rescript.—The plaintiff sues for what is substantially four years extra services as agent of the defendants. He presented no claim for the payment of extra services, while he was in the employ of the defendants, although he did present accounts and bills, during that period, in which he would naturally have made the claim, if he had one. During the same time he gave receipts for his services which would seem to be incompatible with the nature of the claim now in suit. Besides, the direct evidence introduced by the defendants very strongly opposes, if it does not overcome the plaintiff's case. Upon the whole, the evidence so largely preponderates in favor of the defendants, we think the cause should be submitted to a jury again.—Peters, J.

HANCOCK COUNTY.

George A. Page vs. Inh. of Bucksport. On defendants' exceptions, "Exceptions overruled."
Wiswell. Woodman. Hale & Emery.

Rescript.—The plaintiff was driving over a defective bridge in the defendants' town, when, without his fault, the horse broke through the bridge and fell. The plaintiff, in trying to extricate the horse, received a blow from the horse's head and was injured by it. He was at the time exercising common care. Held, that the defect in the way was the proximate cause of such injury.—Peters, J.

J. P. Grindle vs. Sch. Dist. No. 1, Brooksville. On report, "Plaintiff nonsuit."
Hale & Emery. C. J. Abbott.

Rescript.—The [illegible] of municipal officers, required as a condition upon which a town may vote to discontinue a school district, may be in general terms, and it is not necessary that it should indicate the precise changes to be made. A vote of a town to discontinue one district or annex its territory to others, is not void because there is no provision in the vote about the school house on the territory of the district discontinued. Where a town voted to divide School district No. 2 and annex Mark H. Grindle and all northwest to School district No. 3, and the remainder of said No. 2 district to district No. 1, and it appeared that Mark H. Grindle lived upon a homestead in said No. 2, owned by him, and that the district was so situated that his homestead practically divided all the remainder in the district north east of his land from the rest of the district. Held, that the reference in such vote to Mark H. Grindle, should be understood to mean the homestead owned and occupied by him.—Peters, J.

WALDO COUNTY.

Elkanah H. Moulton vs. Ira Trafton. On report, "Demandant nonsuit."
McLellan. Jewett.

Rescript.—The tenant as assignee of Clark Trafton, claimed to hold premises thus described in an exception in a deed from another party to the demandant: "Excepting by this conveyance a saw mill and a shingle machine, and land enough around said mill to carry on the lumbering business at said mills, and a right of way from the mill to the Village, conveyed to Clark Trafton as long as he shall occupy said privilege with said mill." Held, that these words created an exception, and not a reservation merely; and that the land, mill [illegible] was [illegible] in the exception, and that the exception constituted a determinable or qualified fee, which could be adjudged, and that the [illegible] of the excepted estate is limited by the existence of mills upon the premises, but not by the personal occupancy of Clark Trafton.—Peters, J.

Wm. Verrill vs. Geo. F. Parker and ux and lot and new building. On report, "Defendant defaulted."
Vose. Hubbard. Pierce.

Rescript.—The Plaintiff contracted orally with a husband to expend labor upon the real estate of his wife, with an agreement as to whom the credit was to be given. It was done, in the husband's absence, under the care and to the satisfaction of his wife, he did not deny his liability, but should [illegible]. Held, that they might be regarded as jointly liable.

Elfakin E. Byard vs. Geo. F. Parker and ux. and lot and new building. On report, "Defendant defaulted for $38 71, with interest from date of writ."
Vose. Hubbard.

Rescript.—No authority is conferred upon the Courts of this State to grant any in rem judgments against houses or real estate.—Peters, J.

PENOBSCOT COUNTY.

John Farrar vs. Augustus J. Smith et al. On exceptions by defendant, "Exceptions sustained, new trial granted."
L. Barker. Brown & Simpson.

Rescript.—Where a grantor conveyed a farm, reserving in the Deed the use of the buildings thereon for a period of time, afterwards, the grantor is not estopped by the deed, to show that there was an oral agreement at the time, that he was to have what manure should be made by the grantor's cattle on the place in the meantime, for the use of the premises. The grantor could legally sell the manure to be made by his cattle during that time. But to complete a sale, as against a second purchaser, a delivery was necessary.—Peters, J.

Chas. D. Chapman vs. Mary Eldr[illegible]. Nonsuit and report by plaintiff, "Action to stand for trial."
Douglas.
Chapman. McCrillis.

Rescript.—A child, ten years of age, went to live with the Plaintiff, under a verbal agreement with its mother, that she was to stay till of age, for her board, clothing and schooling, and she left at thirteen years of age, by the act, or with the consent of the mother. Held, that the Plaintiff could maintain an action of assumpsit against the mother upon an account annexed for the child's board.—Peters, J.

MR. GLADSTONE'S RETIREMENT.

AN ENGLISH VIEW.

The Pall Mall Gazette says: "Finally, we think Mr. Gladstone's retirement to be regretted, as in one respect a memorable instance of self-deception. We cannot doubt that he leaves political debate for polemical controversy, not only because he has a strong fancy for the last, but because he thinks he excels in it. There could not be a grosser mistake. Mr. Gladstone is a very poor writer; and it is only by careful study, and by throwing aside the greater part of one's associations with good writing, that one can find traces in his productions of the powers which make him a master in debate. No doubt, at first sight, there is an answer to this in the enormous circulation of his recent pamphlets. But the fact that near one hundred and fifty thousand of them have been sold only proves the more conclusively that he is leaving a field in which he is strong for a field in which he is weak. For Mr. Gladstone is read not because he is a telling writer, but because he is an orator so distinguished that he led a great political party. It is the ex-Prime Minister, not the pamphleteer, who has been read by so vast a multitude. His publications certainly do show a certain kind of ability. As we said above, he knows where to hit an adversary, and this trick was, of course, learned in parliamentary fence. But otherwise he is obscure, ponderous, and confused; and we venture to think that, if he lives long enough for his great parliamentary ascendency to be forgotten, and goes on writing all the while, he will be scarcely read at all. Such a declension for a man who possesses almost in perfection the one talent most valued under the institutions most characteristic of our country is melancholy indeed. Mr. Gladstone become a pamphleteer can only be compared to Richelieu busy with tragedy, or Frederick occupied with Alexandrines; but then, at all events, the Frenchman continued to administer and the German never wearied of war."

THE LYME, CONN., TRAGEDY—Barbarous Conduct of a Father. The Hartford Times gives the following particulars of the sad affair which occurred at Lyme a few days since, brief mention of which has been made by telegraph:

"The full particulars of the tragedy in Lyme were not given in our Saturday's paper, as they and not come to light at the time. Mr. Daniels, the father of the family, whose house was burned down on Thursday night, is very poor, and most of the time under the influence of liquor. He and his wife were away at the time of the fire, and he has not since been heard from. The house, as was stated, caught fire from the explosion of a kerosene lamp, and the seven children had a very narrow escape from being burned to death.

None of the residents of the village were aware of the fire until 7 o'clock the next morning, when Mr. William E. Coult, the nearest neighbor (who lived a quarter of a mile away), found one of the Daniels boys, about eight years of age, lying half frozen on the steps of his house. He learned from the boy that the Daniels house had been burned. Mr. Coult immediately started with help and found the other six children huddled together in some cedar bushes near the house. One, a girl thirteen years of age, entirely naked, was frozen stiff and dead. Another was badly frozen, and has since died. The ages of the children were from 1 to 17 years.

The most horrible part of the story yet remains to be told. It seems that Daniels, who is a wood cutter, returned from his work a week ago last Saturday night and found that during his absence the family had suffered for the necessities of life and had been compelled to beg of Mr. Coult and other neighbors for food. He made the most severe threats against them and forbade them doing it again, even if they starved. Fear from this threat was what compelled the freezing children to take refuge in the bushes instead of running to Mr. Coult's house. The father had even punished his children for taking food from the neighbors, and thus when they were fleeing from their home, while it was burning, and in danger of freezing, they dared not apply for help. When found, the body of one girl, thirteen years of age, was frozen stiff to the [illegible]. Her chemise, her only garment, had been torn off by the younger ones to keep themselves warm. All that remained of the garment on her person was the yoke and part of this, with portions of the skin and flesh, remained on the feet when the body was removed. The boy found on Mr. Coult's steps had remained there from half-past 12 o'clock until 7 o'clock in the morning with no garment on except his shirt and pants. A still more terrible part remains to be told. A daughter of Daniels, seventeen years old, was one of the party saved, and with her was found clasped to her bosom, her babe twelve months old. The father of this babe, it is asserted by the town authorities of Lyme, is her own father! Daniels has fled to parts unknown. His poor children are kindly cared for by humane persons of Lyme, while the authorities are trying to find his whereabouts."

CURIOUS CUSTOMS.—In Wendish Prussia there are villages where certain old customs are still observed on the death of the head of a family. If the man should happen to have been a bee keeper, one of the family goes to the hive and striking the combs exclaims, "Bees, arise, your master is dead!" A similar custom prevailed, and possibly still prevails, in parts of England, and furnishes the idea for an interesting poem by Tennyson entitled "Telling the Bees." The English custom was based on the superstition that unless the bees were told of any death occurring in the family they would quit the premises, and the manner in which the information was conveyed was by placing a black cloth over the hive. In the Prussian villages already alluded to it is the custom on the morning of the funeral of a farmer for the men to proceed to the cattle sheds, and after causing the cattle to get up on their feet, place cloths before them and solemnly announce to them that the body is about to be taken away.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE SENATOR BUCKINGHAM.—The funeral of the Hon. William A. Buckingham took place at Norwich, Conn., Tuesday. In accordance with the Senator's wishes it was characterized by no services of mere display. Special trains were run on the Hartford, Providence, and Fishkill Railroads and roads entering the city and their connections, a table of arrangements having been made of their arrival at the depot here to conform to the hour of the funeral. The Senatorial Committee, composed of Senators Hamlin, Sherman, Stevenson, Fenton and Washburn, accompanied by the Sergeant-at-Arms of the Senate, E. B. French, arrived here last night, from New York as a special car of the New York and New Haven Railroad, the "William A. Buckingham," which was heavily draped with mourning. From 10 to 2 o'clock, the remains of the departed Senator were viewed by throngs of people at his residence. At 12 o'clock the doors were closed to the public, and private services were held, relatives and friends only participating. At 1 o'clock the casket was removed to the Broadway Congregational church of which the deceased was a deacon, where public services were held, conducted by the Rev. Daniel Merriman. The casket was mounted with silver fastenings, on which was a handsome wreath of flowers. At the conclusion of the services at the church, the casket was removed to the hearse and borne to its final resting place in the Yantic Cemetery, followed by a long line of mourners and friends in carriages. The pall-bearers, consisting of the Senator's old staff while Governor of the State, were as follows: General Morse, Colonel H. H. Osgood, Colonel William Hitch, Colonel Thomas Fitch, Colonel Israel Matson, Colonel Henry R. Bond. The other pall-bearers were, Colonel Joseph H. Seldon, Henry B. Morton, A. W. Prentiss and B. W. Tompkins. Prominent men from all parts of the State were in attendance at the funeral, among whom were, Postmaster General Jewell, Governor Ingersoll and his staff, Congressman Hawley who represented the Connecticut delegation, ex-Governors Holly and English, Senator-elect William W. Eaton, ex-Lieutenant-Governor Roger Avery, Judge Gallup of Hartford, Chief-Justice Park and Judge Foster of the Supreme Court of the State of Connecticut, the Hon. David A. Wells, State Controller Goodrich and hundreds of other prominent State and local officials. The flags on the City Hall, and elsewhere were at half mast, and many of the buildings were elaborately draped and adorned with suitable mottoes. All the banks were closed between the hours of 12 and 4 P. M., and the people generally turned out to pay their last tribute of respect to all that was mortal of the late William A. Buckingham.

Sickness is quite prevalent in Oceanville at present.

There were not so many teams put in the woods at Rangely this winter, as usual, which leaves lots of men and teams to attend to something else, and many are putting lumber into the saw mills about the county. One mill, where, for years past, they have had from seventy-five thousand to one hundred thousand feet, will this winter get from five hundred thousand to six hundred thousand; others not quite up to that, but have a large supply.

Canker rash is quite prevalent in Pittsfield, but no serious cases are reported.

These snuff chewers are mostly women."

Cumberland.

The Press says that the C. P. Kimball Carriage Manufacturing Co., of Portland, is in a serious financial strait. The failure of Kimball Brothers, its selling agents in Boston, was announced Tuesday. It is said that the speculation in land in the suburbs of Boston,—speculations which resulted disastrously because of the depreciation in the value of real estate—caused the suspension of the Boston firm. The selling agents are largely indebted to the company in Portland, for large numbers of carriages which have been consigned to them. The company entered largely into the manufacture of the jump-seat carriage a few years ago, and when the rage for that style abated, the company was left with $80,000 worth on its hands, which was a severe loss. The shops were closed Tuesday night, and the workmen, forty in number, were discharged. C. P. Kimball, esq., it is supposed, loses his whole fortune by the failure.

Franklin.

At Rangeley wheat is very plenty and selling from one dollar and thirty cents up to one dollar and fifty cents.

On Thursday, Feb. 4th, the store of W. H. Robertson at Weld Corner, was consumed by fire, with nearly its entire contents. It is understood that the insurance will nearly cover the loss.

Some of the farmers from Weld and Carthage are now hauling spruce from Bear Mountain to Webb's river, some for Lewiston and some for the home market.

Kennebec.

The Lewiston Journal says that H. B. Dunn, Tuesday sold his interest in the Ticonic water power company, to the Lockwood manufacturing company. Mr. Dunn takes $200,000 of the stock. Hon. J. H. Drummond of Portland drew the papers.

Mr. Elliab Cary, who died Feb. 6th, had been depot master at Winthrop ever since the opening of the railroad to Winthrop.

Lincoln.

A valuable horse belonging to Edwin Bartlett of Damariscotta Mills, ran away Tuesday afternoon at that place, and striking his shoulder against one corner of the railroad depot, shattered the shoulder [illegible] killed on the spot.

Penobscot.

A dwelling house belonging to Benjamin Merrifield and occupied by Elbridge Nash, in Hope was consumed by fire Wednesday, 27th ult. Mr. Nash lost nearly all his furniture. There was no one in the house when the fire caught, and the neighbors live too far off to render any assistance.— The fire caught from a defective chimney.

Somerset.

The members of the Pittsfield Universalist Sabbath School gave an exhibition at their church, on Sunday evening, to a full house. The exercises consisted of dialogues, singing, select reading, etc. All taking part in the exercises acquitted themselves creditably.

There is a great scarcity of water in the vicinity of Pittsfield, and many farmers are obliged to drive their stock a long distance or melt snow to obtain the necessary supply.

Washington.

J. M. Grant, of Ellsworth has two new vessels on the stocks. One of them is to be a three-master, and is owned by parties in Ellsworth and Boston, and will be about six hundred tons burden. The other one is to be a packet of about five hundred tons, and is intended for the Ellsworth and Portland Packet Line.

W. J. Corthell's house in Calais was slightly damaged by fire a few days since.

Mr. F. B. Bailey has received this week his commission as Deputy Collector in the custom house in Calais.

Mr. Samuel Royal on Tuesday last, at Hall's Mill, accidentally fell on a stick of timber and severely injured his hip, rendering him incapable of walking, and from which he suffers great pain.

A. B. Crabtree, of Hancock has a crew in the woods cutting the frame for a vessel of about 100 tons burden.

Business in the lumbering line is quite brisk in Penobscot, the winter has been favorable, and there will be a large quantity got out.

Never before in its history has Ellsworth been so thoroughly aroused on the subject of Temperance. Almost every night, meetings are held, and Hancock Hall is filled with earnest and interested audiences. Rum has fled to its darkest holes and dreads the daylight. Intoxication no longer staggers in our streets, nor makes night hideous with its maudlin shouts. Moderate drinkers, drunkards, and even rumsellers are under conviction, and are seeing as they never saw before, the awful pit before them. More than five hundred have already signed the pledge — May the good work go on until this city becomes distinguished for its temperance and sobriety.

Mr. Charles Campbell, of Gouldsboro, has recently hauled from the woods a spruce log, thirty-eight feet long and ten inches diameter at the top end. He intends to ride this log over Sullivan Falls some day in July next, when the tides are very high and at the height of their running. He has a bet of $1000, he says, with outside parties, to win, he must come out alive, and atop of the log.

York.

A stable on Thornton avenue, Saco, was slightly damaged by fire Friday night.

Mineral Remedies Superseded.

All except those who refuse to be convinced by the most positive proof, admit the infinite superiority of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters to the mineral remedies which it has to a very great extent superseded, and which, it is to be hoped, for the sake of the human stomach, may eventually be abandoned altogether. The Bitters are a most potent corrective of disorders of the liver, stomach and kidneys. Habitual constipation, dyspepsia, bowel complaints, and the numerous and changeful symptoms which indicate internal weakness or disease, are in every instance not only relieved, but cured, by a persistent and systematic use of this sovereign remedy. Intermittent and bilious remittent fevers may be surely prevented by a daily use of this powerful but pleasant and mild tonic. Physical vigor is the best armor in which to encounter disease. Secure it by recourse to the Bitters.

CAPITAL PUNISHMENT

The question of the expediency of abolishing the death penalty for the crime of murder is one upon which good men may hold to differ in opinion but the refusal of successive legislatures to do away with capital punishment affords a fair indication that the people generally are not satisfied that such a change in the law would add to the security of the public or be productive of beneficial results; such a public conviction can be attributed to no spirit of vindictiveness against the culprit [illegible] of the [illegible] aroused by the perpetration of a bloody crime [illegible] to a pitying regard for the terrible situation of the criminal all the period intervening between the offence and its punishment [illegible] the progress of [illegible] the shocking details of [illegible] become less vividly remembered [illegible] [illegible]

The bill requires that the Court of Commissioners shall determine claims of insurers according to the principles of law and the merits of the several cases, with a proviso that stock companies shall refund one-half of the amount received on their claims to those who paid war premiums and that mutual companies shall distribute the net amount received by them to those who would have been entitled to the amount if it had been received in the years when the losses were paid.

THE TARIFF BILL

The text of the [illegible] tariff bill reported to the House on Wednesday [illegible] follows:

A bill further to protect the sinking fund [illegible] for the [illegible] of the Government.

SENATOR WASHBURN'S GENEVA AWARD BILL. Senator Washburn of Massachusetts has brought before the United States Senate a bill on the subject of the distribution of the Geneva award, and the refusal by Congress at its last session to allow the great body of the claims of insurers to be [illegible]

A Washington despatch says the pacific settlement of the Virginius indemnity claims by the payment of five hundred pounds to the family of each citizen of the United States executed reflects high credit upon Senor Mantilla the Spanish Minister who commenced the negotiations, and General Cushing who has terminated them. There is now no unsettled question between Spain and the United States which it is not agreeable news to the holders of Cuban bonds who have been clamoring for a war between the two parties.

The Boston Pilot states that the Pope has raised the Roman Catholic Dioceses of Boston, Philadelphia, Milwaukee and Santa Fe to Archdioceses and their respective Bishops to Archbishops.

The Congressional Temperance Society have issued a circular under the signatures of Henry Wilson as president and J. W. Chickering as secretary earnestly recommending that the temperance [illegible] Christian ministers and congregations on Sunday, the 21st of February.

THE CAPITAL PUNISHMENT VOTE. The following is the record of yeas and nays in the House of Representatives on Wednesday on the bill to abolish capital punishment and substitute imprisonment for life:

Yeas—[illegible]

Nays—[illegible]

So the House refused the bill a passage.

POLITICAL AND PERSONAL

The jury before which Speaker Shaw of the Mississippi House of Representatives has been on trial on a scandalous charge has returned a verdict of not guilty.

The New York Herald which assumes to give the President of the United States a great deal of advice about these times, thinks that Fall River is in Rhode Island.

The Wisconsin State Journal ascribes Senator Carpenter's defeat to railroad influence over the Democracy but it adds that it will require considerable time to settle the question how much the Democrats have made by the transaction.

Governor Booth of California, the newly elected Senator, has raised a very nice point of official propriety. He refuses to attach his signature as Governor to a certificate that he had been elected to the United States Senate. He might resign, then, and let somebody else do it.

The New York Commercial Advertiser thinks that the last fortnight's experience with the real Democracy, what with forty six hours filibustering in Congress, the bitter opposition to Civil Rights, the attempt to dictate to the majority and the John Brown impudence, ought to open the people's eyes.

It is known that if the Civil Rights bill, which recently passed the House, should reach the President, he would sign it, and he said on Tuesday that he would be even willing to go further, as he is fully convinced that some decisive legislation is necessary, or the colored man in a large portion of the country will fall into a state having all the evils and lacking only the name of slavery.

In reporting the scene in the House during the debate on the expulsion or censure of John Young Brown the correspondent of the N. Y. Times notes the following incident:

While the debate was in progress it was noticed that all the Democratic candidates for Speakership of the next House went over to condole with Brown and to suggest by their actions if not by words, that he would have opportunities to indulge his spite when they had succeeded to Mr Blaine's position. Mr Wood had a better right than the others to express his sympathy for the scene undoubtedly brought vividly to mind the time when he also had been called before the Speaker's desk to receive the censure of the House.

Senator Carpenter's last speech in Wisconsin concluded with the following good advice to Republicans:

Do not scold, wrangle and scold. Do not lose confidence in the people who in their second thought is always right. Do not forget that amid all the reverses and mutations of human affairs, God calmly sits on His throne, that truth will prevail over falsehood and right vanquish wrong. Stand by the flag. Wrap the mantle of human liberty closer about you and close up the ranks. Cheer your comrades [illegible] whoever is your leader may be keep step to the music of the Union [illegible] which is our asylum and citadel and the [illegible] of human rights.

CONSUMPTIVES TAKE NOTICE.

[illegible] Dr Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup [illegible] for consumption far exceeds all that can be brought to support the pretensions of any other medicine. See Dr Schenck's Almanac, containing the certificates of many persons of the highest respectability who have been restored to health, after being pronounced incurable by physicians of acknowledged ability. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup alone has cured many as these evidences will show but the cure is often promoted by the employment of two other remedies which Dr Schenck provides for the purpose. These additional remedies are Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic and Mandrake Pills. By the timely use of these medicines, according to directions Dr Schenck certifies that most any case of Consumption may be cured.

Dr Schenck will be at the Quincy House Boston on the following Wednesdays from 9 to 3 o'clock Jan. 13th and 27th, Feb. 10th and 24th and March 10th and 24th. Consultation free, but for a thorough examination of the lungs with the Respirometer, the price is $5.

Dr Schenck is professionally at his principal office, Corner Sixth and Arch streets Philadelphia, every Monday, where all letters of advice must be addressed.

The remarkable cures it has effected class it as one of the most important and valuable remedies ever discovered for the cure and relief of pain in any form with which suffering humanity is afflicted. It cures Neuralgia, Face Ache, Rheumatism, Gout, Frosted Feet, Chilblains, Sore Throat, Bruises and Wounds of every nature in which the effects of external applications are almost magical. Physicians prescribe it for their patients and accord their unhesitating approval as an invaluable discovery.

We append a few of the many testimonials bearing testimony to the universal favor with which this medicine has been received by the public.

FROM THE STATE CAPITAL.

A Final Adjournment Near—A Bill Vetoed—The Penobscot Bay and River Road—Appropriations—The Compulsory Education Bill—The Bangor Water and School Committee Bills—The Land Office—Constitutional Commission's Report and Expenses, Etc.

[SPECIAL TO THE WHIG AND COURIER.]

AUGUSTA, Feb 11. A large amount of business was disposed of to-day in the Legislature, and there is now every indication of a final adjournment being reached by Saturday of next week. Several committees made their final reports.

Various Matters.

Quite a number of resolves calling for appropriations of money in Aroostook county were tabled in the Senate.

Adverse legislation took place on the proposed law for the regulation of flotage in Penobscot river, for assessment of damages for lands taken for railroad purposes, and to amend chapter 49 of the Revised Statutes relating to insurance.

Bills to incorporate the Oldtown Dam Company and relating to railroad fencing were assigned for to-morrow in the House.

The House recommitted the Rockport Ice Company bill.

The Senate passed to be engrossed the Lobster bill, which is a compromise measure between the catchers and packers.

The Senate indefinitely postponed the [illegible] bill and the Interest bill, the latter an amendment to chapter 45 of section 1 of the Revised Statutes.

The Senate assigned the bill relating to the embezzlement of property for Tuesday.

The committee has reported favorably on the Foreign Insurance Company bill, and the Senate ordered it to be printed.

The Auburn Municipal Court bill was tabled by the Senate and passed to be engrossed.

The Railroad Tax bill was passed to be engrossed by the Senate without debate.

A resolve was reported appropriating $18,000 for the State Reform School.

Railroad Legislation.

A bill was reported to amend the charter of the Castine and Ellsworth Railroad Company, and to allow it to construct its road through Ellsworth, Trenton, Frank[illegible], Sullivan, No. 7, Steuben, Millbridge, Cherryfield, Harrington, Columbia Falls, Jonesboro', Whitneyville, Machias, East Machias, Marion, Dennysville, Pembroke, Charlotte and Calais, with branches to Pembroke through Perry to Eastport.

Another bill was reported to incorporate the Brownville and Sebec Railroad.

Veto by the Governor.

Gov. Dingley has returned to the House the bill granting further powers to the Martha's Grove Camp Meeting Association of Fryeburg without his approval. In his message accompanying it he takes the ground that such associations appear to be sufficiently protected, and suggests the doubtful constitutionality of such a measure, [illegible] the power of appointing police officers by a private association. The House refused to pass the bill over the Governor's veto by a unanimous vote.

Penobscot Bay & River Railroad.

A debate took place in the House over the Penobscot Bay & River Railroad bill. Mr. Pitcher of Belfast wanted to amend so that in the location of the bridge at Belfast it shall cross the harbor as near to the "lower bridge" as is possible, the question of feasibility to be settled by the city of Belfast and the railroad company, and if these parties cannot agree, then to leave the matter to the Railroad Commissioners. The amendment was discussed by Messrs. Pitcher, McGilvery of Searsport and Wilson of Bangor, the two last speaking in opposition. The amendment was rejected and the bill was passed to be engrossed by a large vote.

Legislative Appropriations.

The Secretary of State has furnished the Senate a detailed report of all appropriations and donations of money granted by the legislation for the last five years, except for support of State Government. The report was ordered to be printed. The annual amounts are as follows: For 1870 $[illegible] 935 06; 1871 $163,065 2[illegible]; 1872 $222,128 55; 1873, 232,808 [illegible]; 1874 $278,127 [illegible]. Total $1,218,284 02.

Compulsory Education.

An attempt was made in the House to reconsider the vote giving a passage to the compulsory education bill, which was unsuccessful. The bill as it passed the House does not contain a clause requiring towns to furnish clothing for needy children.

Liquor Commissioner's Report.

The annual report of the Liquor Commissioner was submitted to the Legislature and referred to the Committee on Temperance. The largest sales are as follows: Auburn $2,[illegible] 25; Bangor, $5,566 19; Bethel, $2,307 84; Bucksport, $2,222 70; Gardiner, $2,230 33; Greenwood, $2,544 1[illegible]; Lewiston, $10,161 03; Portland, $9,711 07; Waterville $3,184 16; Whitefield, $2,071 01. The aggregate sales foot up $37,[illegible] 6[illegible].

Bangor Water Bill.

The Bangor water bill, with Senator Palmer's amendments, came up in the House. Mr. Wilson of Bangor offered a new amendment to the effect that the act shall take effect when approved by the Governor, which was adopted. Pending the adoption of the Senate amendments, they were ordered to be printed.

Capital Punishment.

There will probably be no attempt to renew the contest over the capital punishment question in the House, and the whole matter may be regarded as disposed of finally during this session. Mr. Heald, of Harmony, in the House presented a bill to make executions public, but failed to have it referred to a committee, the House summarily disposing of it by referring it to the next Legislature.

Railroad Directors.

A bill was reported which provides that any freeholder may be a director of a railroad company where cities or towns own stock.

Member Excused.

Mr. Sawyer, of Milbridge, was excused by the House from any further attendance.

Land Office.

The bill to revive the Land Office was taken up in the Senate. Senator Cutler, of Penobscot, withdrew his amendment and substituted another, providing that the Land Agent, under the direction and control of the Governor and Council, shall, as rapidly as the public good allows, bring to a termination all unsettled business connected with the Land Office, and relating to lands belonging to the State. It creates the Governor, State Treasurer and Land Agent a commission to close up the affairs of the office and placing the settling lands in such custody as shall be for the best interests of the State, and hasten their settlement, and refer it to the next Legislature. It also makes valid the official doings of Land Agent Burleigh for the year 1874. Pending the adoption of this amendment the bill was tabled, and the amendment ordered to be printed.

City Schools of Bangor.

The act relating to the city schools of Bangor was amended in the Senate, at the instance of Senator Palmer, of Penobscot, by striking out of the first section the words "not less than three nor more than," so that the bill now provides for a superintending school committee to consist of seven members to be elected by the City Council. The bill, as amended, was then passed to be engrossed.

The Constitutional Commission's Report.

The Constitutional Commission submitted their report to the House, through Judge Kent, President of the Commission. The amendments framed by the Commission number in all seventeen. In order to facilitate legislation, the Commission also submitted a resolve by which such amendments as may be proposed by the Legislature to the people for adoption may be presented and voted on. The report on motion of Mr. Wilson of Bangor was referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Expense of the Commission.

The total expense of the Constitutional Commission to the State is $2,044 20. The pay of members was ten dollars per day and mileage. The largest sums paid were to Judge Kent, who was President of the Commission, and receives $235 00; Col. Kimball, the Secretary, gets $210 00 and also $40 for copying. The average daily attendance was eighteen days and two-fifths, and the average pay of each member was a little rising $200.

Finally Passed.

The following have been finally passed and sent to the Governor for his approval:

An act relating to the settlement of persons connected with the National Home for Disabled Soldiers and Sailors in the county of Kennebec; an act to incorporate the Mystic Tie Lodge, No. 7, Knights of Pythias, of Saco, Me.; an act for the protection of owners of stolen bonds; an act to amend sec. 3, chapter 198 of the public laws of '74, relating to the disclosures of poor debtors; an act to incorporate the Union Slate Co.; an act to amend sec. 12 of chap. 3 of the revised statutes, relating to highway surveyors; an act to incorporate the North Whitefield Manufacturing Co.; an act to incorporate the Union Slate Co.

An Amendment to the Savings Bank Law.

The Banking Committee have agreed upon an amendatory bill to the present savings bank law, which will be reported to-morrow. It provides that on the last Saturday preceding the first Monday of May and November of each year every savings bank shall make its returns to the State Treasurer of the average amount of its gross deposits as held on the first Saturday of each and every month. It also provides that no salaried officer of any savings bank shall be a cashier, and if any subordinate officer of a savings bank is cashier or subordinate officer in a national or stock bank not more than one trustee of the savings bank shall be a director, nor more than two trustees shall be stockholders in the national or stock bank so connected therewith. It also provides that bond and stockholders shall be ineligible to hold salaried offices in savings banks. The same committee have also voted to report charters for savings banks in Corinth, Limerick and Auburn.

A Military Bill.

The committee on military affairs have voted to report a bill to increase the volunteer militia force of this State to twenty companies with a view to organizing two regiments, one for the eastern and the other for the western section of the State. Also to hold an annual encampment and a resolve appropriating $20,000 for military purposes.

School Bills Coming.

[TO THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

To-day the Education Committee voted to report a bill to establish the Bridgton Normal School; to abolish teachers' institutes; to report a bill providing that the school fund shall be distributed on the number of scholars who attend school three weeks instead of on the total number during the term; also to report a bill requiring town officers to return to the State Superintendent the amount of money actually expended for schools before they can have their portion of the State school fund; also a resolve to print five thousand copies of the school laws for the use of town officers.

A Capital Punishment Bill.

The Judiciary Committee to-day instructed Mr. Talbot to report a bill abolishing that portion of the laws relative to cases requiring the Governor and Council to review the same, and requiring the Court to fix the day of execution when sentence is pronounced, and that the Governor issue his warrant for the execution.

Other Matters in Committee.

The Land Committee voted unanimously to report a resolve granting the proposed branch railway from Lyndon in Aroostook county to Tobique, N. B., the lands belonging to the State in that region amounting to about fifteen hundred acres. The Land Committee considered the question of settling the claims of settlers under the Washington Treaty. The Insane Hospital Committee will report a resolve appropriating $25,000 for a new chapel and hall, and report $50,000 for a new hospital, the Governor to appoint commissioners to decide on the location of the same. The Banking Committee agree to report a bill providing a penalty for such banks as loan money on names alone.

FROM ROCKLAND.

The Ice Embargo.

ROCKLAND, Jan 1[illegible]. The steamer Clara Clarita came off to-day and made her way through the ice in the harbor some distance but could not get within a mile of shore, and the passengers came ashore on the ice, which is eight inches thick. A sleigh load of milk, etc., for the island was run off to the boat. It is snowing with the wind south and the weather moderating.

THE AUBURN MURDER TRIAL.

The Case Ended—Higgins Retracts and Pleads Guilty to Manslaughter—Lawlor's Plea.

LEWISTON, Feb. 11. The murder trial at Auburn was brought to an end this morning by an arrangement among the counsel by which the prisoner was allowed to retract his plea of not guilty, and substitute one of guilty of manslaughter. A nol. pros. was entered on the indictment for murder and Higgins was remanded for sentence. Lawlor, his companion and ally in the Lincoln street affray, was then brought in and pleaded guilty to an indictment for assault and battery.

FROM PORTLAND.

A Bigamy Case.

PORTLAND, Feb. 11. William Merrill, a tin smith of Portland, eloped with Fanny E. Crockett, also of Portland, and they were married at Boston Highlands, Feb. [illegible], [illegible] Merrill [illegible] now [illegible] certificate of marriage dated Nov. 1872. The newly married pair are supposed to have gone to Ohio. Officers are after him on a charge of bigamy. He had obtained three or four hundred dollars from Miss Crockett's bank account.

The Walkist.

DOMESTIC NEWS.

FORTY-THIRD CONGRESS—Second Session.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.

Senate.

Mr. Hamilton presented the minority report from the Committee on Elections, signed by himself and Saulsbury, against the admission of Pinchback as Senator from Louisiana. Ordered printed.

Mr. McCreery introduced a bill setting forth that it had been noticed in a prominent medical journal of the United States that the Asiatic cholera was spreading westward and now raged on the borders of Mexico, and directing the Secretary of War to detail competent medical officers of the army to investigate the report and give due notice of the spread of the disease. The bill also proposes an appropriation of $5,000 to defray the expenses of such an investigation. The bill authorizing the President to appoint a Commissioner to attend the International Penitentiary Congress to be held at Rome next year passed.

One hour was devoted to bills from the Committee on Territories.

The Senate then resumed the consideration of the bill providing for a government for the District of Columbia.

Mr. Boutwell presented a memorial of the citizens of Essex county, Mass., in favor of the passage of a bill for the equalization of bounties. Referred.

Mr. Hamlin presented a memorial of L. Staples and others, owners of the barque Alvino of Searsport, destroyed by the Shenandoah in October, 1865, claiming compensation for her loss out of the Geneva award.

The Senate resumed the consideration of the unfinished business, it being a bill to provide a government for the District of Columbia, reported by the Joint Select Committee of which Mr. Morrill of Maine is Chairman, the pending motion being that of Mr. Morton to have Commissioners elected by the qualified voters of the District instead of being appointed by the President.

House.

The consideration of the post-office appropriation bill was resumed in Committee of the Whole, the question being on the amendment to allow transmission of public documents and seeds from the Agricultural Department to pass free through the mails. Several speeches were nearly all in favor of the amendment, and by a vote of 77 to 77 the Committee of the Whole agreed to the amendment. Democrats and Republicans voted for it.

An amendment to the Post Office bill cancelling the Pacific Mail contract of 18[illegible] agreed to in Committee of the Whole, was unanimously passed by the House. A separate vote was demanded on the amendment agreed to in Committee of the Whole on the Postal bill looking to a partial restoration of the franking privilege, and the amendment was rejected, yeas 93, nays 120. After the passage of the Post Office Appropriation bill the House went into Committee of the Whole on the Revenue bill, Mr. Dawes obtained the floor. He said a year ago he addressed the House on the subject. He thought then that there would be no necessity for increased taxation, but he was compelled to change his mind, and now there is no way by which the receipts and expenditures can be made to meet except by increasing taxation.

MASSACHUSETTS.

The Strike.

FALL RIVER, Feb. 11. To-day has been very quiet without any disturbance among the strikers, nor has anything new developed. The Merchant mill has again started up. It is understood with a greater number of hands, while it is stated by an operative who gained admission on pretext of wanting work that there were only nine weavers, and that of this number there was only one experienced hand, and also that there were over fifteen looms running without warps. It is rumored that spinners are waiting with some uneasiness the fulfillment of pledges given them previous to the strike by manufacturers that when the price of cloths advanced they would restore the reduction. They will call meeting Saturday night. Small contributions in aid of the strikers continue to come in from manufacturing towns.

UNION PACIFIC OBLIGATIONS.

A Letter to the Secretary of the Treasury—A Lengthy Mortgage.

NEW YORK, Feb. 11. A letter of the President of the Union Pacific Railroad to the Secretary of the Treasury contains the following embodying the proposition of that company to the Government relative to its obligations: The mortgage held by the Government in its terms and by the judicial decisions of the United States Court cannot be enforced until the maturity of the bonds, which is near the close of the present century. The bonds are accumulating an interest account, and are also uncollectable until the principal is due. The principal and interest when due will amount to over $77,000,000, though the actual amount advanced by the Government was only $27,236,512. For this very large amount the Government has only a second mortgage, and if it be allowed to accumulate without any provisions being made to meet it, the company will probably be unable to pay it. At the same time it is equally manifest that the Government will be unable to collect it, except upon the assumption that it will advance money to discharge prior mortgages and run the road on government account, a policy which wise statesmanship could not advise. By standing still, therefore, the company has a load of debt accumulating for which no provision is made, and the Government is drifting further and further from the opportunity to secure a just return for its advances. To do nothing is to injure both the Government and the company, perhaps irretrievably to both. In this I venture to make a proposition which offers on the part of the company all that it can possibly do and secure to the Government a substantial return for its advances. It is as follows:

The Proposition for Payment.

The Union Pacific Railroad Co. propose to pay five hundred thousand dollars into the Treasury of the United States per annum, on each first day of July, beginning with 1875, and to continue the payment for 20 years, and thereafter on each first day of July the payment shall be $750,000, and the money so paid in shall be held by the Secretary of the Treasury as a sinking fund to the credit of the Union Pacific Railroad Company, especially devoted to the extinction of the Government mortgage interest thereon so recorded at six per cent. per annum lawful money, payable semi-annually, and accruing interest each half year to be carried to the account of the sinking fund to the credit of the Union Pacific Railroad Company, and this annual payment by the Union Pacific Railroad Company shall be continued without delay or default until the amount to the credit of the Company in the hands of the Secretary of the Treasury shall be equal to the full amount of the Government mortgage reckoned at simple interest to the same date, the Government lien existing to remain as security for the discharge of this obligation and to be cancelled when the sinking fund thus created shall equal the mortgage of the Government reckoned at simple interest, at which time said sinking fund shall be transferred to and shall rest in the United States, and this payment shall be in full discharge of all obligations due from the Company to the Government. Should this suggestion meet with your approval I would respectfully [illegible] on behalf of the Company that you lay the matter before Congress, [illegible] recommendation as [illegible] Secretary of the Treasury that the services of the Company in the transportation of army supplies, etc., by official estimates saves to the Government two millions of dollars per year as compared with the expenses incurred in similar service before the building of the road.

RHODE ISLAND.

The Ice in Newport Harbor, Vessels Frozen in—Steamboat Lines Stopped.

NEW YORK, Feb. 11. A Newport dispatch of last night has the following: The schooner Addie Blaisdell, from Baltimore for Boston with coal, is frozen in near Goat Island light ship. Her captain walked ashore and reports the ice a foot thick around the vessel. The steamer City of Newport, which plies between Newport and Providence, has discontinued her trips on account of the ice. Neither the steamer Florida from Philadelphia for Providence nor Thetis from New York for Providence have arrived. The steamer Galatea of New York and Providence Steamship Co., which left Providence the evening of the 9th for New York, was off Coddington Cove, Narragansett bay, Wednesday noon, and she could be seen from shore. A tug went to her assistance but could not get within half a mile of her. Toward night the steamer managed to extricate herself and proceeded, but it is presumed she will not get far. Providence parties have been very anxious as to her safety, and have sent repeated inquiries in relation to her. The crew could be seen on the ice at work upon her copper, and it is presumed her machinery is disabled also. The Old Colony Steamboat Co. have decided to leave the New York steamers Old Colony and Newport omit one round trip, commencing Wednesday. They have ordered [illegible] [illegible] the past week from [illegible].

NEW YORK CITY.

Troubles with the Ice.

NEW YORK, Feb. 11. The ice still continues bad in the bay and rivers. The Staten Island ferry boat Middletown while on her way from the Island to the city yesterday was cut through on the starboard side and was obliged to haul off for a few hours to repair damages. The ship Ambassador (British) for London while going down the bay was forced aground by the ice [illegible] below Bedloe's Island, where she still remains, but will probably get off at the next high tide. Several vessels which attempted to go to sea were obliged to return to dock. The ship Bell Castle (British) for London got down to the Narrows but was obliged to return and go into dock at Staten Island. There [illegible] which were anchored off the lightship came up yesterday. The [illegible] Sandy Hook [illegible].

His object being to show that all pecuniary matters involved with Irwin were personally with [illegible] Stockwell and were not the acts of the company. Nothing new was elicited.

A Memorial Against Cancelling the Pacific Mail Contract.

John Roach has sent a memorial to Congress in behalf of himself and [illegible] workmen engaged in ship-building, against the cancellation of the Pacific Mail contract of 187[illegible]. He says it [illegible] bribery [illegible] can be proved it should be punished, but that cancelling the contract punishes no guilty person. It only punishes the innocent at the request of an investigation or the guilty [illegible] for insufficient reasons.

THE TILTON-BEECHER CASE.

Continuation of the Cross-Examination.

NEW YORK, Feb. 11. Notwithstanding the drizzly weather this morning, the Brooklyn City Court Room was as well filled as ever. Mrs. Tilton was present. The defendant and wife were absent when order was called, but came in a few minutes after. Mr. Tilton mounted the witness-stand, and his cross-examination was continued, the points dwelt upon being as to his intimacy with Woodhull and the tripartite covenant. After recess Mr. Evarts examined the witness particularly on "The True Story," reading passages and asking witness if he wrote them, receiving in reply such answers as that the witness did not remember any such phraseology, or that it was something like that.

MINNESOTA.

Trying to Coalesce with the Democrats.

ST. PAUL, Feb. 11. All the political factions in the Legislature held caucuses to a late hour last night without arriving at any decisive conclusions. The Davis men are said to have sent word to the Democrats that if a coalition is to be effected, it must be done at once, as after to-day Davis will be withdrawn. The Democrats responded by proposing a strong Democratic platform, based on the Democratic platform on which Angus Cameron was elected in Wisconsin. To this no decisive answer was returned.

OHIO.

Meeting of Colored People—Resolutions on Affairs South.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 11. The colored people held a meeting in the Second Baptist church last night to consider the condition of the colored people in the South. Speeches were made by Peter H. Clark, Col. Robert Harlan, D. W. Ball, and others. A preamble and resolution were adopted. The resolutions recite that a condition of lawlessness and violence exists in Louisiana and other parts of the South, which seems to spring chiefly from the prejudice against the freedmen, and is calculated to do great injury to the whole country, and, if continued, may involve the country in another civil war. They approve all lawful efforts to maintain peace and preserve their lives, property and rights of the people. They call upon all good citizens, North and South, to assist in the maintenance of peace and order, and they offer sympathy to their suffering fellow-citizens of the South, exhorting them to endure even unto death, abstaining from violence or any vindictive retaliation, relying on the right and justice of the American people, which, though tardy, is sure.

Last night there were no [illegible] lights burning after midnight and the streets were dark as a pocket. As the city pays a good price for its gas, which is supposed to burn all night, it seems desirable that this trouble, which is [illegible] frequent, should be remedied.

The Belfast Journal says that the Amateur Minstrels have accepted the earnest and repeated invitations of prominent citizens of the town to give an entertainment there. After the handsome manner in which they acquitted themselves in Augusta, Bangor will surely have reason to be proud of their appearance in our sister city down river.

An abstract of the will of the late Hon. Samuel F. Hersey will be found in another column. It will be seen there are a number of public bequests for Bangor institutions, including a very large amount to be held in trust by the city of Bangor for the educational, sanitary and moral benefit of its citizens; also, a large prospective endowment to Westbrook Seminary.

Old Probabilities hit the nail on the head yesterday, when he said it would probably snow or rain. The result was something of a cross between the two. A heavy rain fell during the evening, accompanied by [illegible] At [illegible] o'clock this morning the rain had ceased.

MAINE CENTRAL INSTITUTE. [illegible] The Spring term of the Maine Central Institute commenced February 1, with 130 students, which number will probably increase to 160 before the close of the term, as several of the regular students are at present engaged in teaching. This large number shows what a high degree of popularity Mr. Bachelder, the principal, enjoys as a scholar and an educator. Quite a large class graduates next term, the majority of whom will at once enter College. Those who wish to pursue a classical course can do no better than to attend here.

Entertainments.

THE OPERA OF MARTHA.

The last evening the Entertainment Course closed with the opera of "Martha." The unusual conjunction of events was found in the fact that although the storm was the most disagreeable we have had, Norombega Hall was filled with the largest and most fashionable audience of the season. This shows conclusively that Bangor has [illegible] the city has the reputation of having a large share of musical love and appreciation [illegible] an occurrence here as the annual concert of an opera very naturally excited [illegible] most pleasurable anticipations among this class of our citizens. When [illegible] comparative dearth of musical events in Bangor is considered even in operas with chorus, orchestra or appropriate appointments, has its [illegible] and Flotow's popular opera of Martha, from the large number of favorite airs it contains, is better adapted than most any other for the presentation of its solo parts alone.

Garland, Feb. 6, 1875.

THE BURIAL OF MOSES.

By Nebo's lonely mountain,
On this side Jordan's wave,
In a vale in the land of Moab,
There lies a lonely grave;
And no man dug the sepulcher,
And no man saw it e'er,
For the angels of God upturned the sod
And laid the dead man there.

That was the grandest funeral
That ever passed on earth;
But no man heard the tramping,
Or saw the train go forth;
Noiselessly as the daylight
Comes when the night is done,
And the crimson streak on ocean's cheek
Grows into the great sun;

Noiselessly as the spring time
Her crown of verdure weaves,
And all the trees on all the hills
Open their thousand leaves—
So, without sound or music
Or voice of them that wept,
Silently down from the mountain's crown
The great procession swept.

Perchance the bald old eagle
On gray Beth-peor's height,
Out from his rocky eyrie
Looked on the wondrous sight;
Perchance the lion, stalking,
Still shuns that hallowed spot,
For beast and bird have seen and heard
That which man knoweth not.

But when the warrior dieth,
His comrades in the war,
With arms reversed and muffled drum,
Follow the funeral car.
They show the banners taken,
They tell his battles won,
And after him lead his masterless steed,
While peals the minute gun.

Amid the noblest of the land
Men lay the sage to rest,
And give the bard an honored place,
With costly marble drest,
In the great minster-transept,
Where lights like glory fall,
And the choir sings and the organ rings
Along the emblazoned wall.

This was the bravest warrior
That ever buckled sword;
This the most gifted poet
That ever breathed a word;
And never earth's philosopher
Traced with his golden pen,
On the deathless page, truth half so sage
As he wrote down for men.

And had he not high honor?
The hillside for his pall,
To lie in state while angels wait,
With stars for tapers tall,
And the dark rock pines like tossing plumes
Over his bier to wave,
And God's own hand, in that lonely land,
To lay him in the grave!

In that deep grave without a name,
Whence his uncoffined clay
Shall break again (most wondrous thought!)
Before the judgment day,
And stand with glory wrapped around
On the hills he never trod,
And speak of the strife that won our life
With the Incarnate Son of God!

O lonely tomb in Moab's land!
O dark Beth-peor hill!
Speak to these curious hearts of ours,
And teach them to be still.
God hath His mysteries of grace—
Ways that we cannot tell;
He hides them deep, like the secret sleep,
Of him he loved so well.

Garland, February 5, 1875. 6

To the Honorable Justices of the Supreme Judicial Court, next to be holden at Bangor, within and for the County of Penobscot, on the first Tuesday of April, A. D. 1875.

Abigail M. Lord, of Bangor, in said county, respectfully complains that she was married to George W. Lord at Orneville, in the County of Piscataquis, on the 16th day of October, A. D. 1852, and that since her said intermarriage she has strictly observed all her marriage vows, but that said George, unmindful of his duty in that respect, without reasonable cause, deserted your libellant on the first day of June, A. D. 1867, and has not lived with her as a husband since that time.

Wherefore she prays that a divorce from the bonds of matrimony may be decreed between her and her said husband. And your libellant alleges that she has used reasonable diligence, but the residence of her said husband is unknown to her and cannot be ascertained.

Pierce's Rheumatic Cure

FOR RHEUMATISM & NEURALGIA.

A TRIED AND SURE CURE!

This remedy is the result of the research of one of the proprietors who had been a great sufferer for years, and who had tried all the advertised remedies and the skill of many physicians without obtaining relief. A radical cure was obtained, and numerous similar cures effected among his friends and acquaintance, without an exception, have induced him to put it before the public. It was got up without a thought of making it an article of merchandise, but the numerous and increasing demands for it, as its merits have become known, have induced him to advertise it for the benefit of sufferers like himself.

It is an infallible remedy, if persistently used, for those painful maladies of Rheumatism and Neuralgia, as testimonials, too abundant to give in this advertisement, will show. Among these testimonials are those of Mrs. Judge Appleton, R. M. Talcott, J. M. Morrill, (foreman of Hinckley and Holt's Foundry) C. H. Emery, and others of Bangor, W. J. Mitchell, (of the Eveleth House, Moosehead Lake) Alvarado R. Orcutt, of Eddington, a sufferer for fourteen years, and at times helpless, having tried the best known remedies and three skillful physicians without effect, after using seven bottles, has been restored to health, and gives his grateful testimonial.

It is an internal remedy, acting on the blood, freeing it from impurities and imparting free and healthy action to the system. It may be used by children and those of the most delicate constitution with perfect safety. Full directions with each bottle.

Price per bottle $1.00. Liberal discount to the trade. For sale by Druggists generally.

"DOUBTLESS THE

MESSRS. CUTLER BROS. & CO.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, March 13, 1872.

Please send us Ten gross small and Five gross large "Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam." This is doubtless the best Cough Medicine in the World. (Signed) ALLEN & CO.

P. S.—These parties have sold this Balsam for over thirty years.

[From one of Boston's most estimable citizens.]

No. 3 Worcester Sq., BOSTON, March 24, 1873.

Messrs. CUTLER BROS. & CO.

In ordering another small lot of your invaluable

Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam,

I should like to tell you what I know about it, in order that others may have the benefit of my EXPERIENCE.

Since this Balsam first came to my notice, in 1848, I have kept it constantly in the house, never allowing myself to be out of it overnight. In all these

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS.

It has not failed in a single instance in my own case to give the desired relief, and I will say the same in regard to my mother, whose by it as I cannot but think. Hers was a case of Congestion of the Lungs, and although attended by a most skillful Physician, she seemed to fail constantly, so that we despaired of her recovery, when an old friend and neighbor persuaded her to try this Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam. The result was most gratifying, I assure you.

LIFE WAS SAVED

RELIEF WAS IMMEDIATE

and recovery rapid. She is now over 82 years old, and is active and well. Whenever she gets a severe cold (which happens once in a while), she takes thirty to sixty drops, according to the violence of the cough, which has always yielded in a day or two by taking the Balsam only on retiring at night. With it the

IRRITATION

is at once subdued, and a good night's sleep secured. I will mention another case, that of a young lady acquaintance, who

BLED AT THE LUNGS

and coughed frightfully, had night sweats and was fearfully reduced. She left Boston for her country home, 150 miles away, as we supposed to die. I sent her a bottle of your Balsam, and soon had the satisfaction to hear that she was much better. She continued taking it for a while and got

ENTIRELY WELL,

and is living now, which fact is to be ascribed mainly to the use of the VEGETABLE PULMONARY BALSAM. Very truly yours,

JOHN CAPEN.

As there are many imitations, be careful to get the genuine. Price in large bottles, which are much the cheaper, $1 00, small bottles, old style, 50 cents.

AN OPPORTUNITY

FOR EUROPEAN STUDY & TRAVEL,

At Very Moderate Cost.

A lady of culture and fine literary attainments, a native of this State, having joined the select class that will go abroad in April with Prof. A. J. Ebell, Director of the International Academy of New York and Berlin, solicits correspondence with ladies who desire to accompany her, also with parents who would like to place their daughters under her more especial care. Unsurpassed advantages for culture and enjoyment are offered at less than one half what their cost would be to parties not possessing the facilities perfected by the International Academy, under plans which have been in successful operation three or four years.

No loss, illness or accident of any kind whatever, has attended any one of the previous tours. Invalids have joined the classes, and returned in blooming health.

THE LINE OF TRAVEL lies through Scotland, Germany, comprises ten weeks' stay in Berlin for study, thence through Austria, Italy, Switzerland, Belgium, France and England.

EXPENSES of the entire term of five to six months, comprising first-class travel and board, carriage rates whenever desirable, cost of sight seeing, museums, concerts, etc., lecturers' and professors' fees in Berlin, private lessons and class instruction from the best teachers in music, the languages, drawing, etc., the attention and services of a lady directress, and the course of lectures to be given daily on history, art criticism, and subjects concurrent with the tour, by Prof. Ebell, who has been over most of the ground twelve times—will be $[illegible]00, gold, in advance.

A second party of more general tourists will leave in June under H. B. Colt, General Manager, and join the main party at Berlin, making a brief stay, will go over the entire route, and both will return together to New York about the middle of September.

BIOMETRY,

Or the Measure of Life.

What is That?

It is the science and art of previewing the probable length of life of a person—deducing it from his Ancestry, Constitution (the measure in size, form, color, and constitution of its various parts), being the signs and Indications, Habits, Vocation, Residence, Intelligence, Instincts, Health, Age, and whatever else, if else there be, which can affect the potentialities of life.

By the application of Life-science, Life Risks can be

AND THE

Lowest Cost of Premiums

TO THE

With perfect security be obtained.

Lowest Cost. Perfect Security.

TERM-LIFE (LABOR-TERM) INSURANCE,
"NATURAL-PREMIUMS,"

What is That?

It is adapted to secure to a family, in case of the decease of the bread-winner during the period of his productive labor, an income correspondent to the yearly avails of that labor.

"Natural Premiums" is the true plan of "pay the yearly cost," or "pay as you go," and put nothing into a company which, both on account of cost and security, may better be kept by the assured.

The TWO SCIENTIFIC IDEAS above named are as yet fully applied only by the AMERICAN

POPULAR

COMPANY.

The idea of GRADING AND RATING Life Risks cannot be applied by any other company already started, since, if it should adopt the method of grading, the best risks now insured in it would of course drop their present policies to take out better ones, to wit, at the lower premiums to which they are entitled; but the inferior risks would stay, and pay the premiums so much less than they ought to be for them.

The idea of Term-Life "Natural Premiums" is not applied by the other companies, because, as they say, they would not, on their "average" plan of taking all insured persons at the same premiums, get enough to cover the expense of their numerous losses.

Hence, all other companies "make faces" at the American Popular, and "call names," about which it does not care a fig, if it can only, as it does, secure the approbation of the scientific and thoughtful, and the patronage of the probably long-lived.

LETTER CARRIERS.

All letters are delivered free by carriers when addressed to street and number. People should inform their correspondents of above and have their letters addressed accordingly.

Persons leaving their address at the General Delivery can also have their letters sent, but it is much more convenient to have the street and number on, and they will be delivered earlier than if the same is put on at the office. Carriers make two deliveries daily, the second trip supplying the extremes of their routes.

Collections are made morning and evening in season for important mails—the down town boxes fifteen and the up town boxes thirty minutes before closing mails at the office.

Holidays and Sundays the Carriers' Window will be open for the delivery of letters from 8½ to 9½ A. M. Also open evenings from 8½ to 9 P. M.

Any irregularities in the Carriers' department should be reported to the office.

ENVELOPES.

No additional charge will be made for printing the name and request to return, across the left hand upper corner of the envelopes furnished by the Post Office Department, (samples of which may be seen at the Cashier's window,) when ordered in lots of not less than 500.

A request for the return of a letter to the writer, if unclaimed within thirty days, or less, written or printed, with the writer's name, post office and State, across the left end of the envelope, on the face side, will be complied with.

☞ The public are earnestly recommended to procure Stamped envelopes with printed return request, as the expense is less, and letters thus enclosed, if not delivered to the person addressed, are returned to the writer free of charge.

First class envelopes of above furnished at $33 8[illegible] per thousand.

EASTERN MAINE.

We have now one of the best appointed newspaper offices in the State, have made important additions to our Editorial, Reportorial and Correspondence corps, and are in every way prepared to furnish our patrons with a

With facilities at our command we hope to make this favorite newspaper more interesting and acceptable during the coming year than ever before. Our connection with the ASSOCIATED PRESS, by which we receive the whole of their despatches by night and day, enables us to present in each issue

News of This Section and the State.

In politics the paper will continue to advocate and uphold the principles of the Republican party, while claiming to be independent, in the highest and best sense of the word. While fearless and outspoken in its treatment of all public questions and firmly maintaining what it believes to be right, it will avoid intolerance and make its appeals to the understanding rather than to prejudice. The year about to open will be fruitful of political events of important bearing upon the future of the country, and it will be our aim to keep our readers thoroughly informed, and to favor such measures and policy as will best promote the welfare of all the people. The great interests of

AGRICULTURE AND MANUFACTURES

of Maine will receive special attention and all the influence of the paper will be exerted in stimulating the growth and prosperity of our beloved State. We rigidly exclude from our columns everything of an immoral tendency, avoid sensational matter and seek to make a thoroughly reliable paper which will [illegible]
